

How to reach IIIT Delhi?

Transit campus of IIIT Delhi is located in Okhla Phase - III, near Nehru Place, New Delhi.

To reach the campus, coming from Nehru Place on outer ring road, follow these directions:

- After about half KM, turn Right from under the first flyover (it is one-way).
- After about 300 m, turn Left from under the Govind Puri Metro station (there is an IIITD sign at this turn).
- After about 300 m, there will be a 'Y' - take the left road of the 'Y'.
- Follow signs for IIIT-D - the main gate is after about 500 m. BY METRO

If you are coming from Metro, get off at Govindpuri Metro Station. The IIIT-D campus main gate is approximately 1 km. From this station, one can take a rickshaw to the main gate, though walking never hurts on a fine day.

Note: If you are at New Delhi railway station, then you can go to New Delhi metro station and get the metro to Rajiv Chowk from where you can get the Mandi house Metro & then from there Govindpuri Metro Station (You can directly purchase the ticket from New Delhi Metro to Govindpuri Metro Station).
